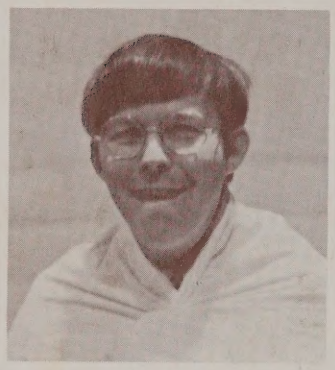
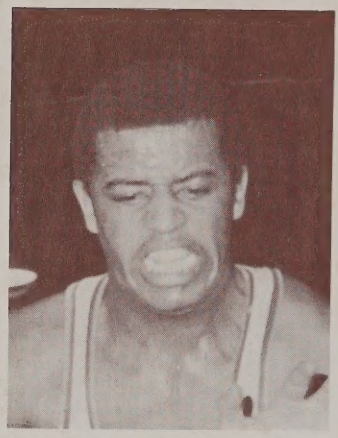
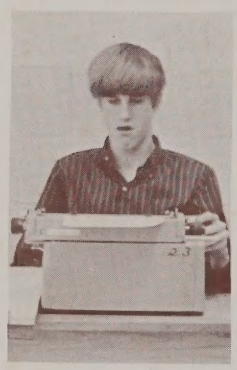
JO ANNE RAMSEY







To Anne Ramsey

Joann may the Good Lord always watch over you.
Rev. Donald Logan

Joanne –
You're about to start out on a wonderful life and I wish you much happiness in God's will – just make sure to include Him in all your plans and all will be fine – besides He knows better how to plan than we do!
Please write!
Much love,
Judy

Joanne,
Let your conscience be your guide but only if your heart is guided by the Holy Spirit.
Do this and you will always be in the will of God.
Love + best wishes
Helen

To Anne,
To a great friend at Natural Bridge who I hope has a brighter future than ever before. Its been just wonderful knowing you in the past few months. Don't get discouraged and give up your education because you'll need it the future years. I hope you all of the luck in the world.

DEDICATION

Coach George Warren

The rules say George can't coach from the sides but don't say anything about mental telepathy, an art which Mr. Warren appears to be practicing here as the NBHS Rockets hold off rival Parry McClure High to win the championship game of the newly formed Alleghany-Highlands District and a birth in the regional tournament. Mr. Warren, who has been head basketball coach four years, is shown also on this page being congratulated by NBHS cheerleaders and faculty, and "Bulldog" Ginger after important victories over Parry McClure and James River. On page 3 Coach Warren is pictured with assistant basketball coach Mr. Camden, at his desk as a member of the science department, and being carried off the court by the 1970 Rockets after winning last year's District 5 championship.

A dedicated science teacher and loyal coach, Mr. Warren is respected and well liked by the NBHS student body. In appreciation of his efforts to improve the spirit, educational program, and sports activities of our school, the staff proudly dedicates edition XXXII of the SPAN to Mr. George Warren.

FRIENDS—P.F. Freeman

Journeying down life's winding road,
Meeting strangers everyday,
We are ever seeking friendships
To cheer us on the way.
Cherish'd are our faithful friends
With feelings, kind and true . . .
Sincere and kind, compassionate
In everything they do.

Each little word of kindness Brings courage all the while
To meet the problems of life
With a cheerful happy smile.
A day would seem so lonely
Without one to bring us cheer,
A friend to speak a kindly word
When sorrows linger near.

A loyal friend who never fails
To convey a thought of love,
Is in everyway a blessing sent
From God in heaven above.
We never know the value
Of a friend until he's gone,
Leaving kind thought and memories
That with the years were born.

Friends depart, time passes on,
Leaving memories dear and fond,
As they journey on in peace
To that beautiful land beyond.
Ever sacred is a friendship
That once we used to know,
And blessed are the recollections
Of friends we used to know.

Foreword

An annual is a school's picture-story of times of happiness and sadness, of friendships and fallings-out, of work and pleasure. These are also the words which tell what putting the yearbook together is like—times of laughter and tears, of compliments and gripes, of preparation and achievement. The staff members have enjoyed doing this edition and hope it will become invaluable to you. It is also our hope that you will be pleased as you turn the pages and relive the 1970-'71 school year at NBHS.

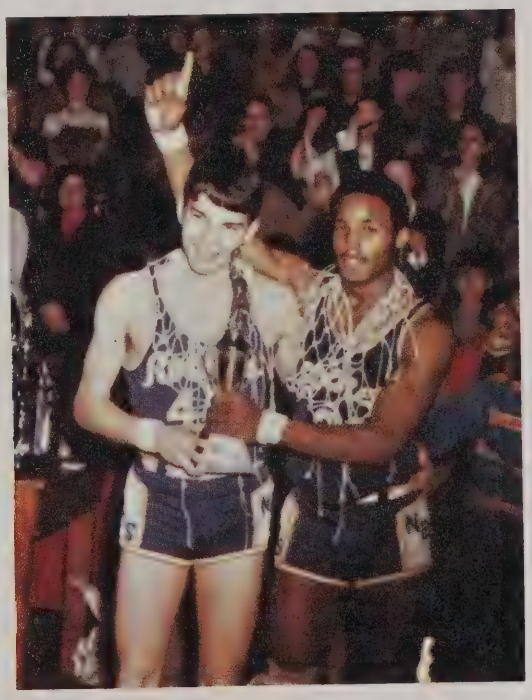
Homecoming and Basketball Highlight 1970-71



A face. A name. A voice.
Do other people really know who I am?

To my parents I am still a child. To my teachers
I am, well . . .
a problem
a challenge a question mark a grade sometimes hope, and sometimes trouble.

I am awake, alert,
ready to do my thing.

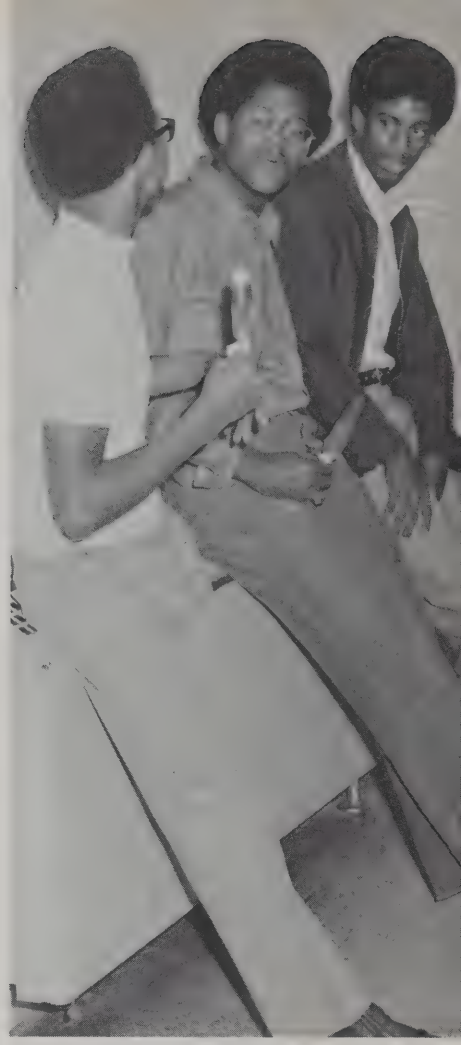
To Anne,
Best wishes to one of the sweetest friends anyone could have. Always remember our days at all times. Be good and come see me.
Patty

Jo Anne,

You do make vanilla milkshakes pretty good now. I hope you don't work here all your life. Maybe somewhere else. Hope you have a happy life and I see you around.

Michael Anderson

I am a talker. Fifty-five minutes is not enough to even begin. Do you wonder what I talk about?



Of friends, sports, Trig, dates, teachers, cars, and the future.

I cannot always remember what is said, but it doesn't matter.

When I'm with him, nothing else matters.

"Why?" is my favorite phrase. You see, I am also an asker of questions, an arguer, and a doubter.

There are times when nobody understands, when I don't understand, when I feel like going it alone.

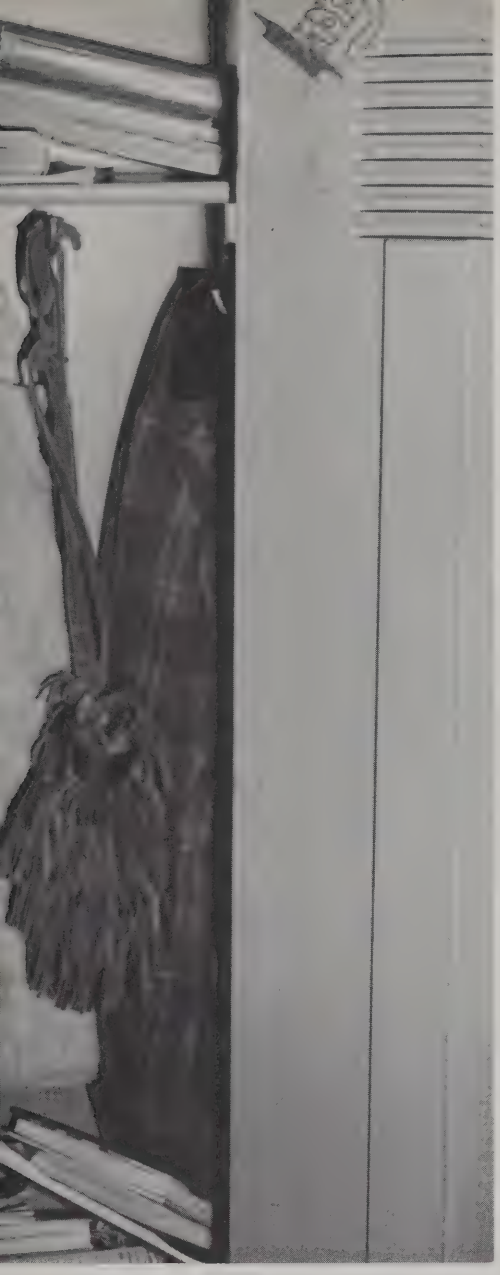
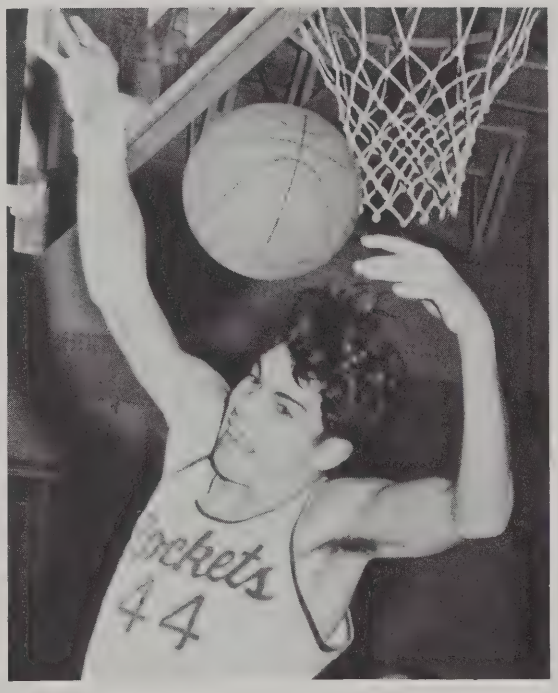
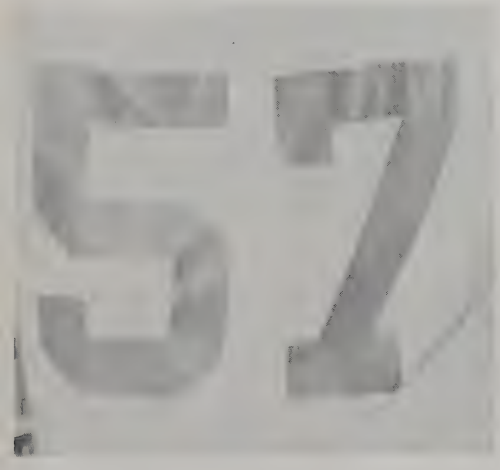
STERLING STORES







I am a joiner of clubs, of teams, of gangs, of cliques. I am a hundred names scattered on books, on walls, on doors, on desks.

I am a number on lockers, on tests, on athletic uniforms.

I am a hero,
a winner,
a pest,
a fan . . .
I can bug teachers, tell jokes,
get expelled, sing
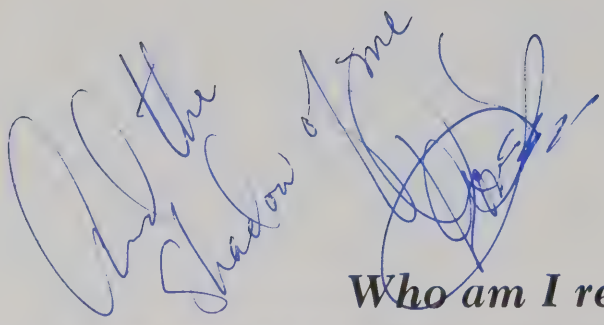
"Amazing Grace"

and I can eat peanut butter five times a week!

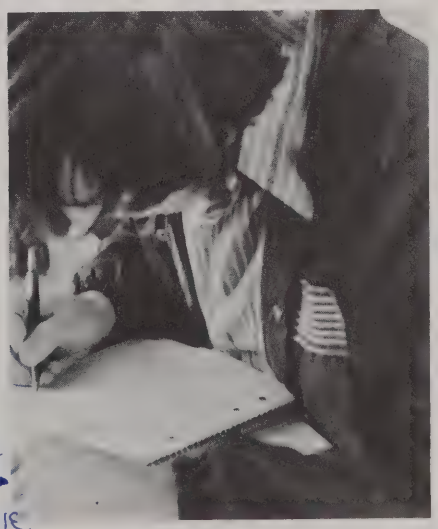


Who am I really?

Myself

Thoughts, laughter, doubts, dreams,

But most of all,



promises

To Anne,

This is pretty nifty because you make the best Milk Shakes + Fresca's over ice in the whole Milk Bar staff. Anyhow I sincerely hope you groove to your own self + follow the dreams which you make up. Love people + be happy

Lissa

And may we all know one promise—

The promise that all of our tomorrows will keep alive the memories of our NBHS todays.

What is a football team? A football team is made up of some of the toughest guys at school who come to practice at 7:00 a.m. during hot summer days. They play when the going is rough, and they play to win. They take a moment out during the play call to check to see if that particular girl is in the stands. They complain about work yet glory in the results. Right when they think an undefeated season is theirs a game is lost. But they bounce right back and go on to take the district championship. They are proud of their school, and their school is proud of them. They create memories for the student body as well as themselves. Like, for a senior Rocket, how could the last game of the regular season this year be forgotten?—Scot Eastwich Field flooded with the result of a week's rain which dampened but didn't spoil Homecoming 1970 . . .

WALTER DUNN

ATHLETE OF THE YEAR!

The NBHS Athlete of the Year, he's a cool dude! He's singled out from the rest, yet he remains "one of the guys." In a way, he's the public symbol of their team accomplishments. He's respected and liked. To gain this honor, he must play football, basketball, or baseball and play it with soul. He runs, jumps, knocks, and bangs, yet doesn't over-do the complaints when he receives a bruise, sprain, or bloody nose. He stays after school when he'd like to be studying or at home running around. He wants victory yet doesn't expect it. He learns to celebrate a victory without bragging! He learns to accept a loss without making excuses.

1971 found NBHS with a group of fellows each eligible for "athlete of the year." And a salute to Phoney is a salute to all of the guys and the part each played. As sports-editor, it has been a pleasure to work with the athletic department. Many thanks to them for their co-operation.

Miss Linda Higgins

Walking down the red carpeted, carnation lined runway for the seventh time in two hours meant Linda Higgins was Miss NBHS '71. The evening's path was not always smooth, with a carpet that caused the girls to trip, the queen announced as the first runner-up, and Linda forgetting to wait for her crown. Mitzi Gibson co-ordinated this annual event which is sponsored by the band and glee club, whose members decorated, scrubbed, worked, sang, and practiced to make the pageant a success. This May 8th evening brought to an end the reign of Kathy Smith, Miss NBHS '70, who is pictured to the far left.

NB Hosts Science Fairs

Natural Bridge High School, with Jonathan Jarvis as science club president, and Mrs. Braford and Dr. Johnson as chairmen, hosted both the local and the county science fairs this year. Area elementary school and NBHS projects made a very successful local fair. Winners in the Buena Vista, Lexington, Rockbridge, and NB fairs competed for county honors and the right to represent Rockbridge County in the Western Regional Fair. Pictured here other than winners are Loretta Ferguson, local second place in chemistry, Malcolm Hite, local honorable mention in Physical Sciences, and Randy Higginbotham, local third in mathematics.

Beta Club Honor Students Attend Richmond Convention

The NBHS Beta Club recognizes those students of excellent academic achievement and cultivates high ideals of service and leadership among its members. The highlight of the year was the trip to the state Beta Convention in Richmond, where, in spite of flat tires on the bus, an enjoyable and profitable week-end was spent. The club sponsored a Christmas Dance, and a May Party was given for the Special Education class of Glasgow Elementary School. Members pictured (left to right): Steve Bouchard, Tommy Camden, Mrs. Croft, Mr. Lynn, Penny Adams, Pat Caldwell, Anne St. Clair, Belinda McFaddin, Cathy Garrett, Bridgett Thompson, Patsy Gregory, John Leslie, Karen Fitzgerald, Debbie Staton, Mike Eggleston, Reggie Webb, Jonathan Jarvis, Margie Watts, Susan Wood, Judy Austin, Connie Fox, Ann Gilbert, Joanna Fainter, Betty Massie, Genalyn Morris, and Ronnie Bullock and Garland Huffman (on table)'

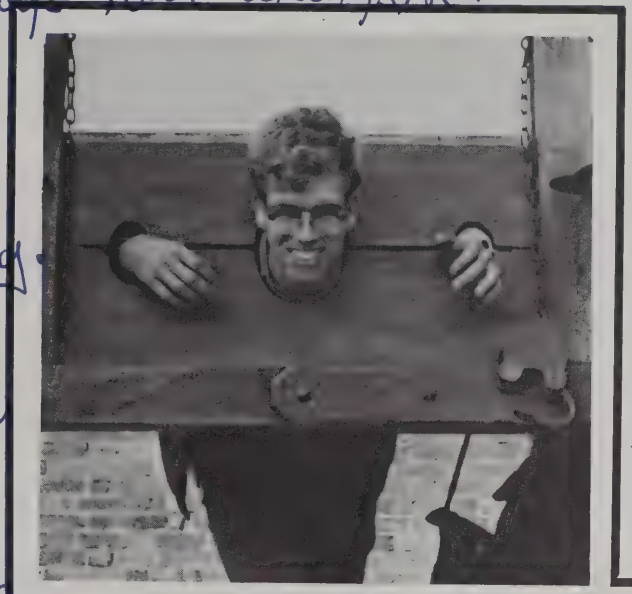
To Ann,

Best wishes again, This time I'll write some good stuff. Remember All the good times we've had. The Rides till midnight, and the pizza, we shared. And always, but always, Remember the N.B.'s co. property.



We weren't trespassing, sorry I wasn't there for "our" graduation together, but I sure wished I had been. Hope you Remember all of our friends, Guy, James, (Pretezel) Linda, the twins, and all those good guy's. Well, Be good, and good luck in college, and please be careful with those patients.

JoAnne, Hey gang remember ... who -- what and when? It's so much to try to remember in one short year!! Oh -- How about the time "Yankie Frankie" threw you out of his class! And remember the day you skipped school and said "you" had a flat tire!
waw.
Oh, yes the great fainting spell where the whole school thought you were pregnant or stoned! HA. And the prom -- and those giant "hickies"! And the graduation party when you got "looped"! Fun-tul! And Micky! And Betsy -- the good times riding all afternoon with her -- oh -- to recall time! And those church parties!
And Randy! And Robert! Allen --
Hey -- JAK your dates with Scottie!
Ok great -- VTA convention! government class -- oh wow! Good times huh? To just have them back! Those famous talks with Rena, Mike, Jay, Bart, Linda, Prezle, and Andy!
That Ceramic class!!
